No Going Back to Normal

Looking beyond the pandemic - UNISON have launched our campaign for improved public services and working conditions for those who deliver them. The theme is 'no going back to normal' - because for hundreds of thousands of us, 'Normal' was being, overworked, under resourced and undervalued. Our key workers deserve better. The pandemic has shown quite starkly whose work we really need. It's time they got the recognition, support and reward they deserve - and that means - no going back to normal. You can find out more about the campaign here

Future of Social Care – Our Response to Health and Sport Committee call for views

By drawing on the frontline experience of UNISON members, this submission seeks to reveal how various systemic problems undermine care quality and service user needs. To that extent UNISON believes that the workforce and service users have a shared interest in changing some of the systems and power relations within the sector.
